

Nursing Alumni of Distinction Awards

Western's Nursing Alumni Chapter is pleased to offer an annual awards program that recognizes significant contributions by an alumnus to the university community, the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing and nursing profession. The Awards are presented each year at the Nursing Homecoming Event. The recipients will receive an elegant Alumni of Distinction award as a keepsake.

Eligibility

The candidate must have graduated from a nursing program at the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing (1920 to present).

Criteria

Rising Star Award

This award is presented to an alumnus who has graduated within the past 10 years from the undergraduate or graduate programs, in recognition of outstanding career achievements and/or contributions to the School, their local nursing or health care community. The recipient is a role model for those new to the profession and sets a standard of excellence to which others can aspire.

Nursing Alumni of Distinction Award

This award recognizes outstanding lifetime accomplishments of an alumnus who has earned prominence through outstanding professional achievements in leadership, research, teaching, clinical care, administration or public service. The recipient demonstrates a high degree of professionalism and serves as a role model for current and future professionals.

Nomination Process

Completed Nomination Forms must be submitted by May 1st, 2021 in order to be considered for awarding at that year's Homecoming event. Candidates may not make personal applications for the Alumni Awards of Distinction. Nominations may be submitted by any individual, independently or on behalf of a group or institution. Completed nominations may be considered for 3 years after submission.
